Dear Jim:

Just returned from my vacation in Europe, and I would like to take the time to congratulate you and the entire Tigers organization on winning the World Series. It couldn't of happened to a more deserving and harder-working organization.

In the middle of September on my visit to Detroit, I saw you in the box. By the time I got to your box, you were gone. I just had to tell you that you looked great!

Hopefully, I will see you in Houston to congratulate you personally. In the meantime, stay well and feel good.

Cordially,

/da
